

THE CORPORATION OF THE DISTRICT OF SURREY

BY-LAW NO. 8791

A by-law to designate certain land and a building as a municipal heritage site for the purpose of preserving evidence of the Municipality's history, culture and heritage for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.

WHEREAS the "Heritage Conservation Act" being Chapter 165 R.S.B.C., 1979, provides that the Council may, by By-law, designate a building, structure or land, in whole or in part, as a municipal heritage site;

AND WHEREAS it is deemed expedient that the following land and building be preserved and that the said land and building be designated by the Council as a municipal heritage site for such purpose as the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.

THEREFORE, the Municipal Council of The Corporation of the District of Surrey, in open meeting assembled, and in pursuance of the authority of Section Eleven (11) subsection one (1) of the "Heritage Conservation Act", R.S.B.C., 1979, ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. This By-law may be cited for all purposes as "Surrey Municipal Heritage Site Designation By-law, 1986, No. 8791."
2. The following described building is hereby designated as a Municipal Heritage Site for the purpose of preserving evidence of the Municipality's history, culture and heritage for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations, namely:

Robert Dougal MacKenzie House (circa 1911)
Present Location: 5418 - 184 Street

This house was built by Robert Dougal MacKenzie in 1911, while he and his family lived on the property in a cabin. Dougal MacKenzie served as Reeve of Surrey from 1921 to 1923.

Originally it was a working farm on 70 acres of land. This house was believed to be the first house with running water. It is also believed to still have the original bathtub in the house. The interior still has the old coal and wood fireplace and most of the high ceilings, most of the original wood work, but a new modern kitchen was put in, in recent years. Robert Dougal MacKenzie sold the house to the John McIntyre Family in 1918. Robert Dougal passed away September 7, 1925.

and all provisions of the "Heritage Conservation Act" being Chapter 165 R.S.B.C., 1979, shall apply to the said building from the date of the final adoption of this By-law.

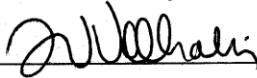

PASSED THREE READINGS BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL on the 29th day of September, 1986.

ADVERTISED in the Surrey Leader newspaper on the 5th day of October, 1986, and on the 8th day of October, 1986.

RECONSIDERED AND FINALLY ADOPTED, signed by the Mayor and Clerk, and sealed with the Corporate Seal on the 20th day of October, 1986.
